Testimonials

Sea Asia 2023 managed to attract many local and overseas maritime stakeholders in numbers we have not seen since the pandemic disrupted our business. Decarbonisation has become a common denominator in our industry, exhibition and the associated events, which Sea Asia has aptly reflected.

Jan-Paul de Wilde, Head, Decarbonisation, Energy Transition and Innovation, RINA

I think they have come up with very nice ideas, where you have common arenas, especially focusing on decarbonisation, as well as some exclusive events and team meetings.

Swapnil Shrivastav, Head of Sales - Singapore Ships Service, Wilhelmsen

OUR EXHIBITORS

Sea Asia attracts global participation from leading industry players, stakeholders and decision-makers, making it a melting pot of ideas, innovation and opportunities. Each edition of Sea Asia seeks to expand its reach and diversity by welcoming new countries and exhibitors to the event.
